

TOPP Interview

TOPP members are skilled in performing presentations at professional conferences, schools, businesses, and organizations. They create networking opportunities, develop software, videos, how to manuals, conduct research and evaluation, and implement training and community service.

If accepted for an interview, you will be assessed in the following:

- Technology skills
- Social skills
- Presentation skills
- Data Management and Analysis skills
- Networking skills
- Contribution to diversity at TOPP
- Handshake firm and extended w/ smile
- Positive affect
- Spontaneously asked appropriate questions throughout
- Complimented others throughout
- Spontaneously demonstrated passion for TOPP initiatives
- Goodness of fit and ability to assist development of TOPP